Dear Friends,

Thanks for making WOW!'s third year the best ever.

Your stalwart support this year has dared us to take on bold new initiatives.

- We held our first Refresh retreat.
- We kicked off our mentoring program.
- We co-sponsored our first joint conference with Fullness in Christ Fellowship in CA.
- We held our first Core Course Reunion.
- We taught for the first time in Africa and Asia.
- We received our first matching grant and held a matching campaign.

You're showing us that we can touch the sky.

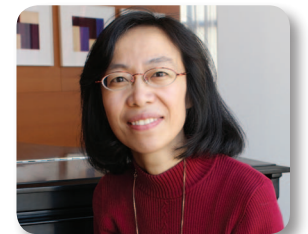

Whether we are in NYC or other parts of the world, we have felt the power of your prayers sustaining us. Seeing God transforming lives is exhilarating; teaching and interacting with seminarians abroad, invigorating. Your faithful giving has allowed us to expand our tents and respond to God's call not to hold back but to lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes! (Is 54:2).

I hope you enjoy hearing about God's faithfulness and goodness to WOW! over the past year, as each page that follows depicts the progress made in our core ministries.

We give God all the glory.

With heartfelt thanks,

Rev. Dr. Grace May
Executive Director of Women of Wonder, Inc.

At WOW! we SEEK God's Will:

Through our Discernment Groups, we gather friends and designated WOW! counselors to help a person discern God's calling. Each tailormade group meets 3 times over the course of a year.

2013 Highlights

This year, five Discernment Groups have been meeting to accompany five sisters through the discernment process. One sister has completed her process and the others are currently working through discernment.

Discernment Group meeting

"The fascinating thing about Discernment Groups is having a front seat view of God's work in the lives of the sisters we minister to. We see them struggle to believe that that they can dream. We watch them plow through obstacles, and we hear their praises and thanksgiving to God for moving them forward in their calling. And all along, we are supporting them, praying for them and celebrating their victory in Christ."

May Lee, Lead Discernment Counselor

"I've been in a period of transition and WOW! is a good place to be—in a community, surrounded by awesome sisters who have been through a lot of life and are still growing."

Refresh Retreat

Despite the downpour everyone arrived safely at the Stony Point Center, about an hour north of New York City. From the beginning, we prayed for 25 people and the Lord brought exactly 25 women plus the speaker! The compline (evening prayer) service was accented by the falling rain and was one of the best moments of the Retreat. On Saturday morning, the sun came out, and we were thankful for the lovely day.

Many of the women came to the retreat with heavy loads of anxiety and uncertainty for next steps in life. The Retreat gave them an opportunity to refresh their spirits through the insights of our speaker, to take time to reflect and meditate on God's goodness and listen to God speaking into their hearts.

Here's what participants are saying were the highlights:

- To come away, to be still, to share with sisters in Christ Jesus
- Feeling God's presence and marveling at His creation
- Getting away from the city to enjoy the countryside
- The #1 take away was the deep and welcomed fellowship among diverse sisters
- Wonderful.

Rev. Valerie Fisher-Bailey, Retreat Speaker

At WOW! we STUDY God's Word:

Through our Core Course, seminars, retreats and other teaching programs, we demonstrate through the Scriptures how God has made women in the divine image to lead and serve the Church.

2013 Highlights

Through our partnership with the Oversea Chinese Mission church in Manhattan, the WOW! Core Course ministered to over thirty women through the Fall and Spring courses. Through this course, hearts were healed, festering wounds were exposed, minds were opened and our wills were engaged to grow deeper and aim higher in our pursuit of God's calling.

In the Spring, WOW! hosted its first Refresh Retreat at Stony Point Conference Center in New York and welcomed the opportunity and reminder to slow down and guard the space for God in our busy lives.

In the Summer, we sent Grace to Kenya to teach on Paul and women.

And in the Fall, we held our first joint-conference with Fullness in Christ Fellowship in California, where we taught on our identity as divine image-bearers in Christ's body.

Core Course, November 2013 at Oversea Chinese Mission Church

This fellowship is a conduit for the Holy Spirit to work and that's so important.

Made in God's image, male and female, colliding with the other side. Through the collision we can learn to work together and shed what's not healthy in us. Unity is two becoming one. God is the one who unifies us and draws us together.

Core Course Fall 2013 Graduation

At WOW! we SERVE God's World:

We network with churches and organizations to provide experiences for women to explore their gifts and calling.

2013 Highlights

As part of our Strategic Plan, WOW! is working to establish a Vocational Opportunities Network. As we lay the groundwork for our foundational ministries, WOW! is connecting sisters from diverse occupational backgrounds and developing partnerships with ministry organizations to create space for women to explore God's calling on their lives. We hope to formalize this network in the coming year.

At WOW! we STAY God's Wonder:

The Mentoring Support Network Provides fellowship, prayer and mentoring to nurture and sustain long-term growth.

2013 Highlights

This year, we kicked off our Mentoring and Support Network and paired six sisters together to support and pray for one another as "iron sharpens iron."

Our first mentoring pair

God's opening doors that I only prayed about. I knew I was called since I was young, but I was told that women weren't called by God. But God says, "I have called you by name." We are inscribed on the palm of God's hands.

Rev. Dr. Sylvia Bradford-Mitchell
Assistant Discernment Counselor

At WOW! we SUPPORT God's Work:

Through our Intercessory Team and Partnerships, we minister, pray and give support to WOW!

2013 Highlights

GROWING OUR PRAYER TEAM

WOW! Intercessory Team (WIT) has been the backbone of WOW! fighting in the heavenly realms and interceding for us. The greatest pleasure this year was getting a taste of the caliber of prayers we have on our WIT team. We truly enjoyed meeting some of our West Coast prayer partners for the first time, interceding for others and ministering to one another in person. This year, we doubled our prayer team from 25 to 50 people!

GROWING OUR FINANCIAL SUPPORT

WOW! is blessed to have 60 financial supporters, almost doubling our donors since last year. With the help of our first matching grant, our donations totaled nearly $90,000. May God bless and return to each one a hundred-fold!

GROWING OUR PARTNERSHIPS

WOW! is developing fruitful partnerships with the following organizations:

- Christians for Biblical Equality
- City Seminary of New York
- Emmanuel Presbyterian Church
- Fullness in Christ Fellowship
- Hephzibah House
- Kingdom Resources Center
- Matthew 28 Ministries, Inc.
- Mustard Seed Foundation
- OCM Grace Church (New Jersey)
- Oversea Chinese Mission

My daughter Tobi made this bracelet for me—see all the colors—it's made of rubber bands; it can stretch, it can go. As a group, we gather here. We're small; we're together. But when we go out there and follow God's calling, we stretch ourselves further and further.
